Holy Fire Ticket Process, October 13, 2019

There are four options for obtaining tickets and/or transportation:

- 1) Go with Diocese
 - a) Diocese purchases tickets
 - b) Diocese provides transportation
 - c) Diocese collects permission forms
- 2) Parish buys its own tickets, but goes with Diocese
 - a) Diocese collects permission forms
 - b) Diocese provides transportation
- 3) Parish goes on its own
 - a) Parish purchases tickets
 - b) Parish provides transportation
 - c) Parish collects permission forms
- 4) Families may purchase tickets and are responsible for their own travel arrangements
 - a) No permission forms needed; parents/guardian supervise their youth

In options 1 and 2, the following Registration/Permission Form must be completed and submitted to the Office of Youth Ministry, 5802 Weiss Street, Saginaw MI 48603. In option 3, permission forms must be completed and submitted to the parish. Parish/Diocesan group leader will keep the Registration/Permission Forms for all attendees in their group. Click here and scroll down for the Group Leader Guide, Adult Code of Conduct and Youth Code of Conduct.

Everyone attending must have a ticket to enter the venue. All participants must bring their own lunch.

Chaperones

Any youth attending Holy Fire Great Lakes without their parent/guardian must be chaperoned in accordance with standard diocesan policy (one adult chaperone for eight youth). Permission forms will NOT be turned in at the event; they remain with chaperones/parish personnel.

Ticket Prices:

Date of Ticket Purchase	Ticket Cost	Transportation	Ticket Cost with Diocesan Transportation
Before July 12	$35	$15	$50
July 13 – September 13	$40	$15	$55
September 14 to event*	$45	$15

*After September 13, tickets may be purchased either by the individual for pick up at the will-call window or at the door. In this situation, if we have seats available on our buses, attendees may pay $15 for transportation and pick up/purchase their tickets at the door.
